MAY RECAP:

May has been a very nice month at The Terrace! We've been blessed with the nice sunny days for the most part and have really enjoyed sitting outside and going for walks.

The first week of May was very busy as we prepped for Mother's Day. The residents helped make homemade bars of hand soap which we gave out to all the ladies on Mother's Day. We also had our own "Derby Day" in the dining room with snacks and a horse race. Everyone wore their derby day hats and we made mint juleps. It was such a fun afternoon! We ended the week with a Cinco de mayo celebration. The residents had a ball swinging at the pinata!

We enjoyed a few outings and we're looking forward to many more in the coming months.

JUNE LOOK AHEAD:

Summer is almost here, and we are going to soak up every bit of it! We have so many fun things planned for June.

One of the favorite things about summer at The Terrace is that we have so many more outing opportunities for the residents. In June, we'll be going to lunch and dinner at several different restaurants, as well as ice cream outings. We will also be taking a drive to Sodus Point and visiting the Newark Farmers Market.

On the 9th, we will be having an antique car show in the parking lot for our residents to enjoy, complete with hot dogs and ice cream! The residents will vote on their favorite car. We will also be having an evening front porch party on the 16th with drinks and snacks.

We'll enjoy our usual activities such as bingo, musical entertainment, crafts and more as well of course.

On Father's Day, the guys will enjoy a special meal in the private dining room. Wishing all our dads out there a Happy Father's Day!

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

STUFFED SHELLS

Cheesy stuffed shells are the perfect family-friendly comfort food. They're packed with ingredients you probably already have — and they're easy to customize when you want something new.

What are you waiting for? Save this recipe to your collection because it's going to become your go-to.

How to Make Stuffed Shells

Stuffed shells are incredibly easy to prep in just 15 minutes, so here's what you can expect from this recipe:

Cook the Shells

Cook the pasta shells to al dente, about 8-10 minutes.

Make the Filling

Combine ricotta, mozzarella, Parmesan, eggs, parsley, salt, and pepper in a bowl. Set aside.

Make the Sauce

Combine pasta sauce, mushrooms, mozzarella, and Parmesan in a bowl. Set aside.

Stuff the Shells

Stuff each shell with ricotta mixture and place in a baking dish. Cover the shells with the sauce mixture.

Bake

Bake until golden brown and bubbly.

Ingredients

Original recipe yields 10 servings

Ingredient Checklist

- 1 (12 ounce) package jumbo pasta shells
- 1 (32 ounce) container ricotta cheese
- 1-pound shredded mozzarella cheese, divided
- 8 ounces grated Parmesan cheese, divided
- 2 large eggs, beaten
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley

- 1 teaspoon salt, or more to taste
- 1 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1 (28 ounce) jar pasta sauce
- 8 ounces sliced fresh mushrooms

Directions

- Step 1

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C).

- Step 2

Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Add pasta and cook until tender yet firm to the bite, 8 to 10 minutes.

- Step 3

While the pasta is cooking, mix ricotta cheese, 1/2 of the mozzarella cheese, 1/2 of the Parmesan cheese, eggs, parsley, salt, and pepper in a large bowl until well combined.

- Step 4

Combine pasta sauce and mushrooms in a medium bowl. Add remaining mozzarella and Parmesan cheeses; stir until well combined.

- Step 5

Drain shells. Stuff shells with ricotta mixture and place in a 9x13-inch baking dish. Pour pasta sauce mixture over the shells.

- Step 6

Bake in the preheated oven until edges are bubbly and the shells are slightly set, 35 to 60 minutes.

“What good is the warmth of summer, without the cold of winter to give it sweetness.”
