THE TERRACE at NEWARK

June Recap:

Summer is finally here! We have spent a lot of time waiting for the warm weather to finally arrive.

The outings have included shopping at Walmart, the dollar tree, ice cream outings and breakfast. Our garden club has begun planting our flowers around the facility. Our memory care unit has worked hard to make the patio beautiful and ready for outdoor activities and entertainment.

We will enjoy every bit of this warm weather while we can.

RECEIPE OF THE MONTH:

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 ¼ cups Boiling Water
- 1 Blue Gelatin
- 4 cups strawberries (cut up)
- 1 cup small marshmallows
- 2 cups whipped Topping

Directions:

1. Prepare Jello according to the package instructions which is 1 ¼ cup of boiling water to 1 six-ounce package of Jello. Stir to dissolve. Pour into a loaf pan and let sit in the fridge for 3 hours.
2. Cut up strawberries into bite-sized pieces for 4 cups of strawberries
3. After at least 3 hours, scoop out the Jello out of the loaf pan. (loosen around edges with a butter knife and lift out with a spatula). Cut set gelatin into bite sized pieces or cubes.
4. Add 1 cup of small marshmallows and 2 cups of whipped topping to strawberries and Jello. Stir gently but thoroughly and serve immediately (or refrigerate) For best results, stir ingredients together just prior to serving.
