THE TERRACE at NEWARK

September is often seen as a month of transition, marking the shift from summer to fall. It brings a sense of renewal and reflection, making it a popular subjucet for insperational qoutes and saying
"There comes a day each September when you wake up and know the summer is over and fall has arrived"

"September is a month of transition, where nature begins to show its autum colors"

"September is a month of transition, where nature begins to show its autumn colors"

"September reminds us to reflect, reset, and embrace change as the year progresses"

"As the leaves change, so can we; September is a tme for new beginnings"

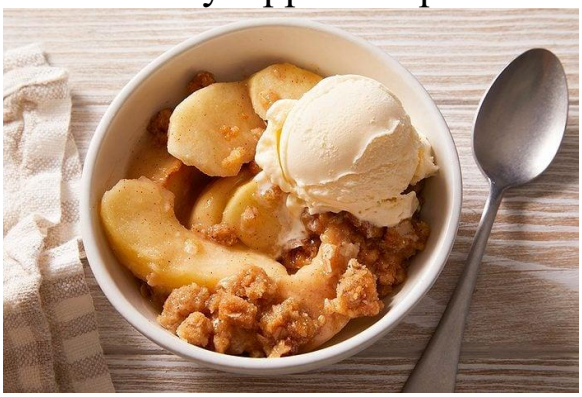
Receipe of the month:

Easy Apple Crisp



Ingredients

- 10 to 11 cups sliced peeled tart apples
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon, divided
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- ½ cup quick-cooking oats
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
- ½ cup cold butter, cubed
- Vanilla ice cream, optional

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 375°. Place apples in a large bowl. Combine sugar and ½ teaspoon cinnamon; sprinkle over apples and toss to coat. Transfer to a greased 13x9-in. baking dish. Combine flour, brown sugar, oats, baking powder, nutmeg and remaining ½ teaspoon cinnamon; cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Sprinkle over apples. Bake until apples are tender, 50-60 minutes. Serve warm, with vanilla ice cream if desired
